

Week 7 Focus: Double Subjects (Grammar)

Double Subjects, Wordy Sentence

walter Payton he holds the NFL record for the most yards rushing in a career, and no one has ever made more than he has

Apostrophes, Double Subjects, Antecedent / Pronoun Agreement

ostriches they cant fly, but it can run as fast as 40 miles per hour

Capitalization, Abbreviations, Double Subjects, Numbers

the u.s. it could fit inside of africa at least 3 times

Usage (Right Word), Double Subjects, Numbers

the United States it looses three point five billion tons of topsoil because of erosion each year

Double Subjects, Subject / Verb Agreement*

the first postage stamps they was issued in 1848

Week 8 Focus: Abbreviations (Mechanics)

Abbreviations, Wordy Sentence, Usage (Right Word)

a beaver can swim half a mile and hold it's breath for 15 min., which is a quarter of an hour

Numbers, Usage (Right Word), Abbreviations, Capitalization

a typical Hen lies about two hundred twenty-five eggs in 1 yr.

Numbers, Abbreviations, Usage (Right Word)

blood actually is thicker then H₂O. . . 6 times thicker

Superlatives, Capitalization, Abbreviations, Punctuation (Introductory Phrase)

with 70,000 victims each year the state of N.Y.has the most high rate of cancer in the u.s.

Abbreviations, Punctuation (Dialogue)

mt Whitney Ms Williams reminded the class is the highest mountain in the continental United States
